The National Public Prosecution Authority will today receive Ahmed Napoleon MBONYUNKIZA following his deportation from the United States of America. He was deported after serving a 15-year sentence for sexual assault-related offenses.

Born in 1968, Ahmed Napoleon MBONYUNKIZA was tried and convicted in absentia by the Nyakabanda Gacaca Court in 2007 for his role in the genocide against the Tutsi.

The National Public Prosecution Authority commends the U.S.A Judicial Authorities for their cooperation in deporting genocide fugitives, their ongoing assistance in matters of mutual legal support, and their contribution to the global fight against impunity.

Done in Kigali, on 4th March 2025
