PRESS RELEASE

The National Public Prosecution Authority (NPPA) today received TEGANYA Jean Léonard following his deportation from the United States of America. TEGANYA Jean Léonard was indicted by the NPPA in 2014 for his alleged involvement in the crimes of genocide and crimes against humanity during the 1994 Genocide committed against the Tutsi. The alleged crimes were committed in Butare town, in Huye District.

TEGANYA Jean Léonard was born in 1971 in Gatumba Sector, Ngororero District, in the Western Province of Rwanda. In 1994, during the Genocide against the Tutsi, he was residing in Huye District, in the Southern Province, where he was pursuing medical studies at the Faculty of Medicine of the National University of Rwanda. He was an intern at the University Hospital of Butare.

The National Public Prosecution Authority (NPPA) expresses its appreciation to the judicial authorities of the United States of America for their cooperation in the deportation of genocide fugitives, their continued collaboration on mutual legal assistance, and their contribution to international efforts to combat impunity and ensure accountability for the crimes of genocide.
